SONG OF SONGS 8:I

I "Come Lace my hand to yours
 there's something I want to show you..."

LAKE-SKIN IN FIREWORK ORE, WARM SWEAT INCENSE...

"I see you wreath wet in fireflies
 ...come barefoot through the weeds with me."

2 "...I found this by the campfire light:"

3 "Cicada nymphal instar!
 I've never seen one alive before..."

4 "Well this is one of their shells...
 but follow me..."

5 ...You know, they only sing here
 Once every seventeen years...

6 ...What are you?!"

"Me?! ...What could you be?!"

"...I guess... I've just...
 I've never really met anyone before..."

...You're the First..."

7 *O can it be... right here.... With me ...A shell awake?
 I'm gonna burn alive!
 O how I've longed to -with you- wrestle dearly.
 A Shell awake!
 A Flame arise!*

8 “...It’s like they’re throw’n
Off all their soaked clothes so what’s real can fly ...and be known”

“But this shell is something more though...

9 ...For long after summer’s breath expires
...it’s A note ...we can hold in our hands...

A shell...”

“...a wake
An Ache...”

“...a song...”

“...A wait so long...”

“...a moment to burn alive!”

“O how I long
to -with you- wrestle dearly.”

A Shell awake...
A Mystery...

11 The Parochet...
How can it be?

12 “...But, we’re breathing aren’t we now
Come sing!”

13 *Hair dripping lake down your frame
under your lace soft thistling anoints your skin;*

*Blessed all wet in the weeds.
All burning deep in toil
Setting fire to everything*

14 “A Green that feels no shame
no need for cover’n shoutin’ out roused ‘cause you’re near!”

...everything now bends round here.

15 “O come I long
To with you wrestle dearly
Blessed all wet in the weeds
settin’ fire to everything.

16 A shell
awake
An ache
A song
A wait so long
A moment to burn alive
O how I long to -with you- wrestle dearly;
A shell awake
A flame arise!”
